

MAINFORUM™

Mr. Gunther Barajas has more than 20 years of experience in the technology industry. He is currently the Vice President of Dassault Systèmes de México, joining 3DS in December 2015. Previous to his incorporation, Mr. Gunther held leadership positions for Latin America at Epicor Software and different executive positions at SAP and JD Edwards. Furthermore, he has experience in the automotive and industrial equipment manufacturing sectors, where he has participated as a member of technology and logistics boards, supporting his clients to achieve their business objectives. He has a degree in Economics from the Tecnológico de Monterrey University, and he also holds certifications in Senior Management and Supply Chain and Logistics from the Tecnológico de Monterrey and the Georgia Tech Universities. Additionally, he is President of the Automotive Cluster of the State of Mexico, Co-President of Innovation of the Mexico-France Council on Entrepreneurship and Innovation (COMFEI), Board member of the Mexican Federation of the Aerospace Industry (FEMIA), and Board member of the French Chamber of Commerce.