

MAINFORUM™

Mr. Jair Mexía has over 10 years of experience at Siemens where he has held various leadership positions in projects, operations and production functions, such as plant manager at El Paso and Ciudad Juarez as well as operations manager at the Monterrey Factory. He is currently the Director of the Business Unit of Engines and Drives of Low, Medium and High Voltage and Digitalization Leader for Siemens Mexico, Central America and the Caribbean. He holds a Bachelor degree in Industrial Engineering with minor in Systems Engineering from Tecnológico de Monterrey University. In addition, he holds a Fast Track Master Business Degree and a Six Sigma Black Belt certification.